

Sponsor Institution Benefits:

Funds received through the Invitational Institutional Sponsorship Program will be used to support JCPA/ICPA-Forum related activities as well as to contribute toward annual workshops and symposia in the area of comparative policy studies, guest lectures, awards for best papers and best student articles, sponsorship of comparative panels at conferences, comparative research initiation, as well as other initiatives suggested by sponsors and approved by the Advisory Board.

BENEFITS TO SPONSORS INSTITUTIONS: Sponsors will have priority in initiating and collaboratively engaging in the above activities. In addition sponsorship provides visibility (name and logo) on Invitational Institutional Sponsors' Page on the front page of each issue of the Journal, List of Sponsors on the JCPA/ICPA-Forum and JCPA's Routledge webpages; acknowledgment of Sponsor Institutions at all international talks and keynotes introducing and outlining the activities of the ICPA-Forum and the JCPA; free advertising space in JCPA's 5 issues per year (conferences, new programs, employment opportunities etc.); use of ICPA-Forum list-serve.

Faculty of Sponsor Institutions are eligible for ICPA-Forum membership and associated discounts on JCPA individual subscriptions and Routledge/Taylor & Francis Group books and journals. Routledge will consider favourable terms to partner institutions on institutional library subscriptions to the JCPA, subject to the institution's current subscriptions and circumstances with Routledge. (For benefits approach richard.delahunty@tandf.co.uk).